THE WASHINGTON BEE

The Bee
—IS A—
GREAT ADVERTISING MEDIUM.
TRY IT!
Do you want reliable news? Do you want a fearless race advocate? Do you want colored trade? Read and advertise in THE BEE!

VOL. XVII. WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1898. No. 14.

HON. LYMAN J. GAGE,
Secretary of the Treasury and the negro's friend.

REGISTER JUDSON W. LYONS,
The apostle of the new negro leadership.

THEY SAY.

Misery loves company.

The daily Post has a friend.

Col. W. A. Pledger is the people's choice.

Register J. W. Lyons is the right man in the right place.

The BEE will be a daily and don't you forget it.

Read The BEE it is just what the doctor ordered.

"When thieves full out honest men get their dues."

Ingratitude is an offense of which the ungrateful is guilty.

Speak well of your friends it will result in good.

Men who are most guilty of offenses are the ones to condemn the innocent.

The President is looking for a suitable colored man to appoint on the industrial commission.

It is hoped that he will be neither an apologist nor a trimmer.

The world is on the eve of a great political revolution.

To speak the truth you are not in danger of being a prevaricater.

The colored man must be his own boss.

He should do his own thinking as well.

Ex-Governor P. B. S. Pichback, has been a brave soldier.

Don't form your opinion of a man or a subject until you have heard both sides.

There are always two sides to all controversies.

Do you know what the colored man intends to do in 1900?

He is doing a great deal of thinking now.

The colored soldier at Santiago, will be remembered in history some time.

All that glitters is not gold.

We make mistakes some times to our own detriment.

A bee never stings until it is disturbed.

Think well of those who speak well of you,

You often talk too much which results in your down fall.

Make no promises you cannot k

Negro leadership is a bosh and a failure.

The Post is badly in need of soothing syrup.

There are journals that it cannot pat upon the back.

Trimmers and apologists can be easily persuded.

North Carolina politics is in need of a good doctor.

The people in the District are in need of suffrage.

If you are in need of a doctor never employ a quack.

The colored man must fight his own battles.

Speak what is true and nothing more

Don't belie ll that is said to you.

Think well of your neighbors until you have occasion to think otherwise.

Do you think it is wise to meddle with other people's business.

If your house is glass all around be careful how you attack the enemy.

Your house will tumble at the least invasion.

A house built upon the sand you must watch for fear of the sand washing from under it.

Be just and fear not.

A man who is honest need not have any fear.

It is only the guilty who is uneasy.

Down with sesesion and traitors.

Our enemies are often given more consideration than the loyal citizens.

Caution!—There have recently been issued several cheap reprints of the 1847 edition of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, an edition long since superannuated. These books are given various names,—"Webster's Unabridged," "The Great Webster's Dictionary," "Webster's Big Dictionary," "Webster's Encyclopedic Dictionary," etc., etc.
Many announcements concerning them are very misleading, as the body of each, from A to Z, is 44 years old, and printed from cheap plates made by photographing the old pages.

WHAT IT MEANS.

It is surprising to those who understand the attitude of the daily Post in its cowardly attacks upon the colored people. as they know what is means. The South has been smarting, in recent years, under the advanced civilization of the negro and his industrial as well as his political successes.

In the South the editor of the Post sees a chance to increase his circulation by catering to the prejudiced and negro hating class of white people in the South, who are too poor and mean to respect a decent government. Negro civilization and progress will never be respected until such writers and thinkers of the Post type are dead and their teachings are decayed. The apostle of prejudice, hotbed ignorance and slavish propensities must leave, as his inconsistencies are making him a laughing stock in a progressive civilization. The Post must be suffering with a severe attack of wind colic or it has been made dyspeptic by coloforbia, superinduced by its inability to convince the intelligent class of American people, that the colored soldier is not the equal and in some instances not the superior of the white soldier.

The Post is too rattle in the head to argue one subject five minutes intelligently. This Southern writer on the Post, in his efforts to convince the people that he is smart has passed a first class examination for admission to St. Elizabeth. The Post is entitled to the honors and no decent journalist should attempt to prevent its immediate admission to that institution.

THE REPUBLIC'S NOBLEST SON.

Now that the war is over and peace has been declared, the important issue is, what becomes of the colored soldier? So much has been said, so many comments made that he has become a burlesque more than a pride. The new territorial possessions acquired by the United States through the recent war open new field both from a military stand point and also a commercial one. Should our standing army be increased to 100,000, which it evidently will be it is more than probable that the colored soldier will be well cared for. There is Cuba, Porto Rico and the far eastern Philippines. In each of these provinces, mililary protection is an essestial fact, and since it is said that the white soldier cannot subsist in these climates, it falls upon the backs of those who belong to the more somber race. Indeed, no obligation seems dearer and the remaining fame of the colored soldier lie in these colonial isles. Any where you send him, he can live, whether in the belt regions of Alaska or in the smouldering swamps of Cuba, the integrity and the faithfulnees of the colored soldier will never waver, but will stand by the Republic, humanely so.

The brave negro soldier who fought, bled and died at Santiago will not be received with flourish of trumpets and beating of drums.

THE POST BLUSHES.

The daily Post in its discussion of France and Dreyfus, blushes at the corruption and the perjured testimony thrt was introduced to convict Dreyfus and Zola. Why should the Post blush, when we have had such spectacle right here at the the capital of the nation, in which a former President of the United States and his satellites were parties to the crime. It was one of the most outrageous and damning crimes that was ever perpetrated upon a jouralist to vindicate the corrupt reputation of a rascal holding a high official position. Why should the Post blush at France? The people in Washington were as much surprised then as the people of France are today at the condition and incarceration of Dreyfus and the flight of that celebrated journalist Zola.

Let not the Post blush at France, but to bow its head in shame at the cosrupt offenses of its own public officials. Corruption and corrupted officials may have sway and triumph for awhile; they may meet a temporary emergency, but right will prevail sooner or later.

DIRTY POLITICS.

The most diabolical and the most dirty game of politics will be found in the North Carolina News and Observer, of recent date. The white democrats of the State are so desperate that they openly charged editor James H. Young, with a most infamous offense which should be investigated if there is any equity or justice in the North Carolina State Courts. Editor Young owes it to himself, to his family and the people he represents to compel the editor of that paper to prove his charges. The republicans in the State are somewhat divided and if they don't come together it will be disastrious to the party. Recorder Cheatham, Congressman White and other influential republicans are on the ground and will harmonize the elements if they can.

JUDGES MILLS AND TAYLOR.

It is to be regretted by the many attorneys who have occasion to practice law before the Police Court, over which these two dtstinguished jurists preside, that their time to retire for the present, has come.

The one month they have presided over the lower and upper branches of the Police Court has been marked with pleasantness to the attorneys and satisfaction to those who may have been unfortunate to be caught in the meshes of the law.

Judge Mills is a lawyer of ability dignified and positive in his decisions.

Judge Taylor is a humanitarian such a man is needed in the lower branch of the Police Court to try petty offenses. Aside from a thorough knowledge of the police regulations and laws that govern petty offenses in that court, a man must have a good knowledge of human nature, such a one is Judge Taylor.

Judge Taylor found a valuable acquisition in prosecuting attorney Richardson from whose opinion and judgment the court would be compelled to differ at times, and who always took it in good faith.

Mr. Richardson is an affiable gentleman and an active and persistent prosecuting attorney he very rarely found a person innocent. But when he was, he must be beyond all reasonable doubt.

The fact that food, clothing and other useful articles to the cash value of $321.000 were distributed to suffering Cubans, exhibits a splendid disposition on the part of the American people and is a mark of magnificent benevolence. The source of this charity lies in the better feeling which exists among those of this country who practice as well as preach, charity and high public morals. From this source all that is noble and useful in government and society proceeds and it is that which must be arouse before the colored vilified and misrepresented, can hope to be accorded the justice and equities which belong to us as factors in the American body politic and joint heirs of the blessing of American civilization. Therefore, instead of seeking to antagonize the unfriendly disposition manifested by spiteful and unprincipled journalists, it behooves us to seek to arouse the cooperation of that element to whose intelligence, justice and practical christianity all that the nation can boast of may be referred. This can be done by appeals from the pulpit, the press, our school officials and a consistent course along these paths which have insured race power and progress among other nations. Careful discrimination in the selection of daily journals will be a means of disarming a measley enemy.

Honest reformation is healthful.

The District troops have fought nobly, none of them were killed.

The District troops heard that a battle took place at Santiago and arrived there after the fight.

The editor of the Post knows how to get up a hurah!

THE GREATEST AMERICAN JOURNALIST.

EXAMPLE FOR OTHERS TO FOLLOW.

Probably the greatest American journalist and the most successful is, Mr. Crosby S. Noyes, editor of the Evening Star, in this city. He is one of the few journalists who writes an editorial in which you find no inconsistencies which doesn't necessitates him to retract or apologize. He is a good example for many men, who claim tohave knowledge of journalism to follow.

His editorials are fair, concise and diplomatic. In dealing with men and measures, he is fair.

He is concise, in that, he can say more in a shorter space than any of his contemporaries.

Editor Noyes.

He is diplomotic, in that, he has sense enough to use the language of a philospher, hence he doesn't have to retract.

The editor of the Star, stands, today, at the head and front of Anglo-Saxon journalism and if all others would take lessons from the Star, Anglo-Saxon journalism in America would far surpass any in the world.

Mr. Noyes, is an editor without prejudice, a philospher with reason, and the most liberal hearted and the kindest in the country. In all public matters where it is necessary to have money to give the occasion or the affair an impetus, Editor Noyes is the first to respond and the last to be offended, even if he is not the first to ina ugurate movement. He is unselfish, honest and kind.

Such is the sentiment of the people concerning America's greatest journalist.

AGAINST THE NEGRO.

WARING IN THE SOUTH AGAINST THEM

From the Austin Texas Herald.

The anti-negro movement at Bells grows stronger and more mysterious. This morning the section foreman on the Texas and Pacific Railroad at Bells found the following notice at his door.

"To 4 Man, West Section, T. and P. Railway at Bells:

"Jack, with all respect to you, we would advise you not to take darkies out on your section, for by the help of God, we are determined to protect our mothers and daughters from the ravages and insults of negroes. If you heed not we will class you as one of them, and God help your poor soul, we will give you the same treatment. Take warning Jack, we like you, but no negroes.

From Fearless Regulars."

The matter was at once reported to the sherff's office, and in view of the fact that the local authorities at Bells are as much at sea regarding the "Regulars" now as when the trouble first became known. The county officers have instituted a court of inquiry and supœnas have been issued for a number of Bells officials, Texas and Pacific Railway employes and others to appear before Justice Hinkle at this place tomorrow, and every effort will beused to get a clue that will lead to the capture of the the guilty parties.

ANTI-NEGRO SHOOTING SCRAPE.

Denison, Texas, Aug., 5,—About midnight last night Conductor Lewis, shot and killed Ben Livingston, colored, on Houston Ave. Livingston had in his possession the horse and buggy of Conductor Lewis. Conductor Lewis was placod under $1000 bond.

CAN THE NEGRO PROFIT FROM THE FOLLOWING.

Twenty or twenty-five years ago there was quite an immigration of Sweeds to Travis, Bell, Williamson and Bosque counties, Texas, many of them of such limited means that they had to work for the first six months after their arrival to pay their passage. But such has been their industry, good judgement and economy that many of them who had to work for their passage are today among the prosperous farmers of these counties, owning in their own right, free from debt, farms of 200 to 1000 or more acres. Lands they have bought for $5 to $10 per acre have come to be worth from $25 to $50 per acre. The Swedes are all ex-pansionists. The courage and desire for acquisition that prompted their forefathers to invade and for age upon their neighboring nations have through the influences of christian civilization, had engrafted upon it the love of justice, indurtry and economy. The permanent and bloodless conquests they are now making are due to these christian qualities. This week a representative delegation of these hardy sons of toil, consisting of Messrs. P. Gustafson, A. Gustafson, F. G. Swenson, Taylor Swenson, V. Anderson, C. Anderson, and A. Sponberg, have been inspecting Harris county lands with a view of acquiring land which to locate the increase of their families. They are highly pleased with the country and the good people of Harris county will gladly welcome these home-makers as co-workers to aid in developing its industries, that they may all be partners in the comforts, influence and power that a proper development of its innumerable advantages of position, transportation, soil, climate and season will bring.

MISS THOMPSON'S ASSAILANTS CONVICTED.

THEY DEMANDED A JURY TRIAL AND 11 WHITE MEN AND 1 COLORED MAN ALMOST WHITE SELECTED.—THE DUTY OF A CONSTABLE IN SERVING WRITS. —THE JURY OUT FIVE OR TEN MINUTES AND CONVICTS.—DISTRICT ATTORNEY MULLOUNEY SPEECH.

In the case of Miss Emma Thompson, who was charged with assault some few days ago, and who was represented by Attorney W. Calvin Chase, as was reported in this paper and who was acquitted by his honor Judge Mills took another turn in the Police Court on Wednesday.

Charles E. Groome, a constable started out to serve a wait on Miss Thompson, who alleged that she was not the right person on whom the writ should have been served. After the charge against her had been dismissed she swore out warrants against Chas. E. Groome, the constable, Charles Herbert and James Armstead, his two asistants, they were tried in the Police Court Wednesday. When the case came up last week these defendants demanded a jury trial, which caused the case to go over till Wednesday at which time prosecuting attorney Alexandria Mullouney placed them on trial. The sentiment among some of the spectators was, as the jury was all white with but one exception, it would be either an acquittal or a hung jury.

Prossecuting Mullouney, presented the case to the jury in a most positive and concise manner, after which the government proceeded to place witnesses upon the stand. Miss Thompson, the lady who was assaulted, in a most lady-like nanner gave in lucid details how she was assaulted by the constable and the two colored men he had with him. She also related the circumstances of the assault upon her invalid mother, who was propped up in the chair and how the feeble old lady tried in her invalid condition to come to the defense of her daughter, while Groome and his men had her down upon the floor with their knees on her chest. She was carried through a rigid cross examination by the counsel for the defense, but not one time was her testimony shaken.

Other witnesses were called and testified and coroborated the testimony of Miss Thompson. The government closed its case about two o'clock at which time the defense proceeded with its testimony.

A general denial was made after which the prosecuting attorney opened the case for the government in a strong and eloquent speech. He argued from a legal stand point, the duties of a constable in serving writs, ect. He closed with a logical and eloquent appeal to the jury to convict all three of the defendants.

The counsel for the defense closed his side with a speech to acquit, after which Mr. Mullouney made the closing argument.

Judge Mills then gave his charge to the jury. The jury returned within five or ten mintes and a verdict of guilty was rendered.

The judgesentenced them all to pay a fine of fifteen dollars each. The white man paid his fine, the colored men went to jail in default.

TREATING THE NEGRO RIGHT.

There are no two men under the present Administration, except the Public Printer, Mr. Palmer, who have endeavored to give negro fairer treatment than Secretaries Gage and Vanderlip. On all sides we can hear nothing but words of praise and commendation throughout the country concerning Secrataries Gage and assistant Secretary Vauderlip.

We are informed that they have ordered more office examinations than any two men who have ever been at the head of the Treasury Department and no discrimination, whatever, is made on account of color, politics or religion, against the candidates for promotions or oppointments.

Secretary Vanderlip is extremely fair and just to all classes especially of the colored applicants for promotions and appointments

The Sixth Auditor is another gentleman who has been liberal toward competent colored candidates for promotions.

Register Lyons who stands high in the hearts of his people, have recommened and had appointed through Mr. Vanderlip, several worthy young colored men and women on the extra work, where the civil service examination was not required.

The Treasury Department as well as the Government Printing Office, with the Public Printer and United States Marshal Palmer have been extremely liberal and fair toward our colored fellow citizens.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the county than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it local disease, and pres ribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and, therefore, requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surface of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address.

They saw the Stars and Stripes floating over the front door and naturally presumed that the proprietor was an American citizen like themselves and a lover of liberty, but they were mistaken. He refused to sell them a bottle of beer for the same price vended to low white men. In charging them 50 cents a bottle for beer he thus discriminated against them on account of color and violated the Constitution of the United States.

ROYAL BLUE TRAINS.

In September last, railway officials from London were sent to America, to get ideas on the railway passenger service of the leading lines in this country, and in their official report, which was printed in the London Times in January, it was stated that the "Royal Blue Line" series of magnificent passenger trains, running between New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, lead the world for quick and exquisite train service.

The "Royal Blue Line" service consists of nine elegant passenger trains a day in each direction between the cities named above. They are the finest and fastest trains in the world. Their equipment was built especially for the service by the Pullman Company, and includes every modern convenience known for the comfort of passengers. The trains are vestibuled from end to end, and hauled by the strongest and fastest locomotives in the United States.

The exquisite day coaches of these trains are worthy of special note. They are beautifully upholstered, each containing a washroom and smoking compartment.

The parlor cars are the most palatial ever built, being fully seventy-three feet long. In addition to this service, three new parlor cars were added in April, and are the first of this kind ever run; they are richly upholstered and ornamented throughout in most beautiful designs. A ladies' retiring-room is provided in one end of the car. This room, which is six feet square, is furnished with a beautiful dresser with large mirror and a number of drawers. On each side of it are upholstered corner seats. In another corner is a bookcase and stationary washstand. The room was designed for especial comfort of ladies, who have always claimed men had the best of it when travelling. The usual smoking apartment, however, is at the opposite end of the car.

The dining cars are operated by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, and especial attention is given to the menu. Every delicacy is served in season, and the service is unsurpassed.

In addition to the already perfect service of "Royal Blue Trains" mentioned above, there will be put into service May 15 a "Royal Limited" train, which will leave New York at 1.00 P. M., making the run to Washington in FIVE hours. Returning, the "Royal Limited will leave Washington at 3.00 P. M., arriving New York at 8.10 P M. The "Royal Blue Line" will then boast of three trains which make this extraordinary fast time between Washington and New York, which has never been attained by any other line. The "Royal Blue Trains" between Baltimore and Washington make the run in FORTY-FIVE MINUTES—the fastest regular service ever attained between the two cities.

The terminal at New York City is the most convenient for all points in Greater New York. Passengers can land at South Ferry (Whitehall Terminal), where, under the same roof, connection is made with the elevated lines of the second, Third, Sixth and Ninth Avenues, and the Broadway, Lexington and Columbus Avenue Cables. All the Brooklyn Ferries also start from this point, and by taking Sallie:—Don't use words of five syllables, when a word of one syllable means the same thing.

A certain softness of manner in man or woman adds a charm that compensates for lack of beauty.

The person who is interested only when his own interest is at stake is more or less false hearted.

Bride:—Don't rent a ten room house when you have only furniture enough to furnish three rooms.

E. F.—It is a breach of etiquette to whisper in company. If what you want to say cannot be told aloud, you should reserve it for a more apropriate time.

Alee:—Some people mistake sensiveness for selfishness. The person who pays attention to every little trifle is over-sensitive and the person who pays no attention to any one, only when his own interest is at stake, is too selfish. Oh, yes, it is well to entertain a certain amount of selfishness toward some people, if not they will not respect you.

Elsie:—Don't frown or worry about anything. Frowns make everlasting wrinkles and worry make crow-feet. Cultivate the disposition of looking cheerful if you want to look young when you get old,

S. H.—It is not wise to engage yourself to a young man except you know he is able to take care of you. It is folly for a girl to give up a good salary, "all for love" when her suitor's salary is not the equal of her own.

Lizzie:—I see no impropriety in calling on your sick friend, since you are engaged. Fruits and flowers are the most appropriate gifts a young miss could make to a sick young man.

S. S.—Never ignore a person without a cause. If a person should act rude toward you without aggrevation, politely let him alone.

L. P.—A flashy dressed person never looks well dressed. Any thing dislike to see, is a tan colored dress with a tan colored girl, yellow or sallow colored woman or pink or African beauty.

C.—The firmness of a man is very often nothing more than obstinacy. Never make an engagement with a man you have only met once. The boldness of ladies is received with more attention than sedateness, to their own detriment.

J. H.—Empty titles are not very profitable. A laboring man oft-times make a better husband than a professional man.

M. C—You should make up your mind to do either one thing or the other. Life is short at the longest. There is no time for delay.

Anita:—Some people become dissatisfied too soon. You should have patience and do your duty toward your fellow man.

Ella:—A young lady cannot be too careful in her public as well as her private walks Flashy dressing is a bar and is indicative of the girl.

Laura:—It is always best to speak the truth. A good name in man or woman is a jewel.

M. T.—It is quite natural for some people to envy a successful girl. Keep yourself above suspicion. People will talk if you dress well, they will talk if you don't and so the world goes on.

Amy:—How can you hope to be respected if you don't respect yourself?

M. T. H.—If you want the information concerning the two superintendents of the public schools write either to Messrs. Cook or Powell.

M. M. O.—A physician must certainly be of the medical boord before he is permitted to practice. Dr. Curtis will resign I am sue. The attorney of the District will give information.

Annie:—You should have answered before now. You have undoubtedly been successful in your short hand lessons. Your intelligence will carry you through. Every lady should understand the art, Jeanette:—It is well to be circumspect as well as sedate. Your companion, Miss Dora will rise with you in your matrimonial happiness. While there may be some objections to long friendship they are beneficial sometimes.

Nellie:—There is no harm for young ladies to go to the theatre alone, especially when escorts are so triffling as to be beholding to any man. Go alone when you cannot better your condition.

A. M.—Never condemn other people for that of which you are guilty. I have seen too much of that Susie:—put on colors that are becoming to you. Don't wear a dress to become others that will not look well on you.

Note: Always respect honesty. It will pay in the long run. Too much curiosity will often lead to disrespect.

The editor of this column solicits correspondence from the well-wishers of this papers. The hints that we throw out are especially directed to the young girls. We don't mean to offend any one nor shall we deal in personalities.

We shall endeavor to answer all questions asked us to the best of our ability. All communications for this column must be addressed to Etta Bene, care of the Washington Bee.
